

The Personal Image Classifier (PIC)

PIC is an intuitive web interface hosted where users can train and test their own personalized image classification models using images taken by their web-cams.

